

What's happening with expats around the world – the world in 2010

Ian Ridgwell, Managing Director, ECA International

The world in 2010

- Managing international assignments in 2010 – the road to recovery?

Business optimism is on the rise following indications that global economic conditions are improving. Is the worst over? And how will this anticipated recovery impact mobility and assignee management in the coming year?

The world in 2010

Ian's presentation will provide an update and advise IHR professionals on issues including:

- Current and anticipated conditions of the international business, political and HR landscapes
- The short- and long-term effects of recent global economic stability on assignment management
- The changes, challenges and opportunities to look out for in 2010

The world in 2010

■ Brief agenda:

- Background – setting the global economic scene
- Inflation
- Exchange rates
- Housing
- Reactions to recession
- Hardship

The world in 2010

- You will have access to Ian's presentation on SARA's website post-conference
- Should you have any questions, or would like to find out how ECA can help you, call us on: +44 (0)20 7351 5000
- Alternatively, please visit the website for further information: www.eca-international.com
- Thank you, and we look forward to hearing from you!